

MERIT REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN THE SCHOLARSHIP

In order to confirm the scholarship, the student is required to satisfy the following merit requirements:

- achieve a weighted grade point average not lower than 24/30. With honors commendations granted to students are considered qualitative acknowledgements of merit, and will not be considered when calculating the above-mentioned weighted average grade
- pass all exams on the first scheduled date

WHEN A STUDENT LOSES THE SCHOLARSHIP

The student loses the scholarship in the following cases:

- the student does not obtain the merit requirements;
- serious offenses beyond a warning (Art. 9 of the Student and Program Enrollment Regulations<sup>1</sup>);
- the student has submitted untruthful information and/or false documents;
- student voluntarily interrupts their studies.

A student whose exemption has been revoked is required to pay the tuition for which he or she was exempted.

<sup>1</sup> 9.1 – Students failing to comply with regulations or laws or norms concerning safety in the workplace, pursuant to Leg. Decree 81/2008 and subsequent amendments, both on university premises as well as during study trips, may be subject to disciplinary action; the student must therefore comply with the provisions established in art. 20 of Leg. Decree 81/2008 and subsequent amendments, “Duties and Obligations of the Worker”. Sanctions will be applied for acts occurring on University premises, during study trips, in University Student Housing or anywhere else where students are acting on behalf of or as part of the University.

9.2 – The following disciplinary actions may be taken against students:

- a) verbal warning;
- b) written warning;
- c) temporary suspension from one or more courses or other academic activities;
- d) exclusion from one or more exams or other forms of testing for the entire session, or for part of it, and from academic activities;
- e) temporary suspension from UNISG academic activities and from services provided to the students;
- f) expulsion of the student.

Applied sanctions will be recorded in the student’s university career. Applied sanctions will not undermine the right/obligation of the University to involve legal authorities.

9.3 – The disciplinary authority over the students belongs to the Rector, who has the right to appoint a Disciplinary Commission, composed of at least two professors of the University, the Administrative Director of the University or his/her delegate and at least one student representative. The examination of the case will take place following written and/or oral communication directed at the selfsame Commission. The Disciplinary Commission notifies students of the accusations made against them. The students may mount a defense according to the terms and conditions established by the selfsame Commission
