Introduction

WHAT:

Training experiences, created by UNISG and held by our professors, researchers and food experts, on topics and values that are in line with the University's multidisciplinary approach

WHO:

Companies in the food sector: production, distribution, catering and food packaging.

WHY:

- To immerse oneself in a rich food culture which embraces the Slow Food «Good, Clean and Fair» values
- To acquire knowledge and technical competences in various branches of the gastronomic sciences
- To improve a team's soft skills through practical and sensory experiences around food

UNISG VALUES AND LEARNING

- SUSTAINABILITY
- BIODIVERSITY
- MULTIDISCIPLINARY APPROACH
