

PASS - Piemonte e Accademia per lo Sviluppo Sostenibile

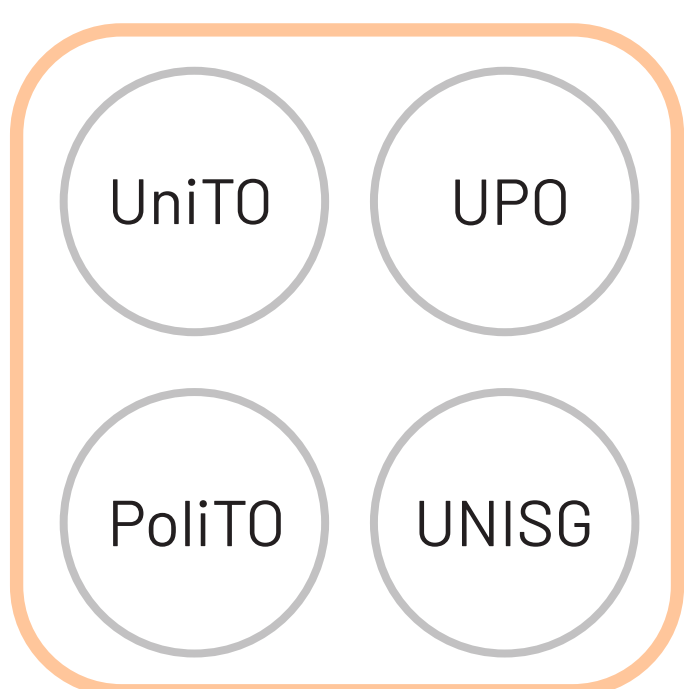

Franco Fassio (Principal Investigator)
 Fabiana Rovera (Research Collaborator) | f.rovera@unisg.it
 University of Gastronomic Sciences of Pollenzo (UNISG)

The Project

The PASS Research Project aims to strengthen regional governance for sustainable development, defining new University-Region collaborative models and a specific direction for the third mission of universities.

PASS intends to support the development activities of the Regional Strategy for Sustainable Development (SRSvS) and trigger, direct and support the formation of an innovative perspective on sustainable development, the concerted re-thinking of plans and programs and the expansion of collaborative governance to territory.

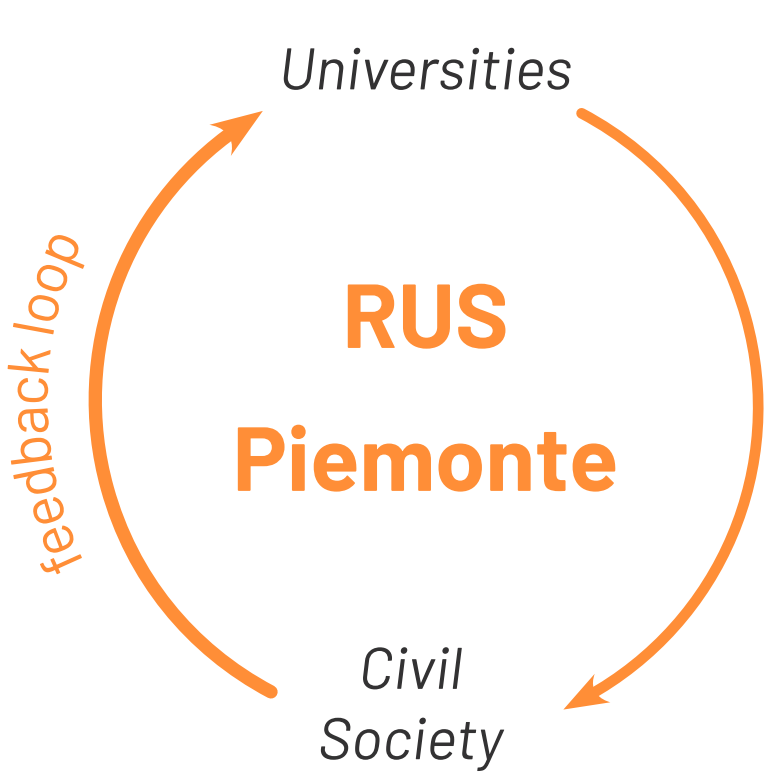

RUS Piemonte

The following work table is born from the union of four universities deeply rooted in the Piedmontese territorial community: PoliTO, UniTO, UPO, UNISG.

Authoritative voice

The RUS Piemonte promotes, in addition to initiatives defined by the participating universities, the SRSvS, in order to spread culture, increase relations, creating situations of listening and confrontation with civil society (public engagement).

Sensitive hearing

The RUS Piemonte, at the time when establishes and increases its relationships with civil society, collects feedback and testimonies and, thanks to bottom-up strategy, brings them back to the Piedmont region to start tables direct comparison and/or discussion the implementation of regional SvS.

- # co-planning
- # sustainability culture
- # recognisability
- # increase in positive impacts

