ART. 1 – WHO CAN APPLY FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP

Students can apply if:

- they are citizens from low-income countries or lower middle income or upper middle-income countries according to the World Bank List of Economies¹ ;
- whose income and property situation do not exceed the limits indicated above;
- they will be admitted to the Master program for the 2026/2027 academic year with a minimum score of 80/100;
- they will be subsequently enrolled as a regular student in the program (auditors are not eligible to apply).

Having been admitted to the first year of the Graduate Degree with an admission score of no less than 80/100 and coming from a non-high-income country are necessary conditions to compete for the award of a scholarship, but do not give the right to obtain it.

ART. 2 – WHO CANNOT APPLY FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP

Students may not apply for a scholarship if:

- they are not regularly enrolled for the academic year for which they are applying;
- their application arrives after the stated deadline (Art. 3);

¹ According to the World Bank list of economies

- they have not provided the required documentation (Attachments 1, 2);
- a family member has already been assigned a UNISG scholarship;
- they have already obtained academic qualifications that are equivalent to or higher than the One-year 1st level Master Degree.

ART. 3 – WHEN AND HOW SHOULD I SUBMIT THE APPLICATION?

The applications must be sent via e-mail to segreteria@unisg.it, indicating in the subject of the email “Scholarship application a.y. 26/27- Name of the Master”.

Applications must be received by November 13, 2026.

The documents sent must be readable, in pdf or word format.

The University may request the original documents in paper form.

Those who have not received a confirmation email within 3 working days after submitting the document are invited to contact the Registrar Office.

ART. 4 – HOW IS THE RANKING DRAWN UP

The ranking of suitable candidates is prepared in descending order on the basis of the admission score.

The appointed committee, at its sole discretion, will assign the scholarship to the candidate who obtains the highest score in the admission ranking. The score is based on the evaluation of the dossier uploaded during the admission phase.

The committee may request candidates to participate in an evaluation interview (online).

In case of equal final score, the person from the lower income group will be awarded the fee exemption.

The ranking will be published on the University Website (www.unisg.it) by December 7, 2026.

ART. 5 – WHAT THE EXEMPTION CONSISTS OF AND HOW DO I KEEP IT

Who obtains the total scholarship:

- cannot convert these benefits into cash values owed
- must meet the merit requirements to keep the scholarship (Attachment 3)
- may stay in feature double rooms and mixed gender at the UNISG student apartments
- can benefit from the lunch service at the Academic Tables Dining Hall only on days in which academic activities are scheduled.

ART. 6 – CHECK OF SELF-CERTIFICATIONS

Check of economic status

The University checks the self-certifications sent in relation to the economic status. The University may request suitable documentation at any time to demonstrate the completeness and truthfulness of the data declared.

Penalties

In case of false declarations, the student will lose:

- the benefits obtained (Art. 75 of Presidential Decree 445/2000),
- the right to obtain other payments for the duration of the study program.

Data processing

Upon submitting their signed self-declaration form, students are informed of European law, Reg. (UE) 2016/679, and Italian legislative Decree n. 196 of 30 June 2003, and subsequent amendments and additions, as well as the provisions of the authority that guarantees protection of personal data.

Students' personal data, which must be provided for the purposes of determining eligibility and assigning scholarships, are processed exclusively for the purposes of managing this announcement and are stored at the University of Gastronomic Sciences – Academic and Registrar Office, with corresponding records kept in digital format. Students who fail to provide said data cannot be evaluated and will therefore be excluded from the process.

As per the above-mentioned Legislative Decree, candidates may exercise their right to correct, update, complete or erase inaccurate or incomplete data or data collected in violation of current privacy laws.
