ART. 1 – WHO CAN APPLY FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP

Students of any nationality can apply for a merit-based and need-based fee-exemption, as long as they:

- have been admitted to the first year of the Graduate Degree for the 2026/2027 academic year with an admission score of no less than 80/100.
- have an average exam grade of no less than 27/30 or equivalent on the date of February 28, 2026. In the case of certifications issued by non-Italian universities, the University of Gastronomic Sciences will carry out the conversion (please see the Table 1 for some examples of equivalence between different grading systems).

Having obtained an exam average of no less than 27/30 or equivalent and having been admitted to the first year of the Graduate Degree with an admission score of no less than 80/100 are necessary conditions to compete for the award of a scholarship, but do not give the right to obtain it.

Table 1. Examples of equivalence between grading systems adopted in different academic systems

Grading scale	0-30 (Italy)	0-10	0-100	0-6	0-4
Required exam grade to apply for the merit-based fee-exemption	27	9	90	5,4	3,6

- they are already in possession of an undergraduate degree;
- they are awarded their degree by the extraordinary graduation session of the 2025/2026 academic year;
- whose ISEE (income)/ISPE (property) amounts do not exceed the limits indicated in the table.

ART. 2 – WHO CANNOT APPLY FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP

Merit-based and need-based fee-exemptions cannot be requested by anyone who:

- was not admitted to the academic year for which they are requesting an exemption
- submits an application after the deadline set out in Art. 3

- does not submit all of the requested documentation as set out in Art. 8
- has a family member already receiving a scholarship from UNISG
- already has a graduate degree
- is enrolled part-time
- has already received a merit-based fee-exemption from UNISG
- has already received a fee reduction for UNISG students.

ART. 3 – WHEN AND HOW SHOULD I SUBMIT THE APPLICATION?

Applications must be submitted via e-mail to segreteria@unisg.it with the following subject line: “Application for merit-based and need-based fee-exemptions for 26/27 AY – Graduate Degree in Food Industry Management”

Scholarship Application Deadline for the third session: July 14, 2026

The documents sent must be readable, in pdf or word format.

The University may request the original documents in paper form.

Those who have not received a confirmation email within 3 working days after submitting the document are invited to contact the Registrar Office.

ART. 4 – HOW IS THE RANKING DRAWN UP

The appointed committee, at its sole discretion, will assign the scholarships to those who obtain the highest score in the admission ranking. The ranking score is based on the evaluation of the dossier uploaded during the admission phase. In the event of a tied final score, the appointed committee can ask to the candidates to participate to an evaluation interview (even on-line).

Scholarship Ranking List for third session to be published on the UNISG website (www.unisg.it) by: 20 July, 2026

ART. 5 – WHAT THE EXEMPTION CONSISTS OF AND HOW DO I KEEP IT

Who obtains the scholarship:

- does not receive any amount of money;
- must not pay the tuition fee for the amount of the exemption he/she was assigned;
- must meet the merit requirements to keep the scholarship in the second and third year (Attachment 3).

ART. 6 – CHECK OF SELF-CERTIFICATIONS

Check of economic status

The University checks the self-certifications sent in relation to the economic status. The University may request suitable documentation at any time to demonstrate the completeness and truthfulness of the data declared.

Penalties

In case of false declarations, the student will lose:

- the benefits obtained (Art. 75 of Presidential Decree 445/2000),
- the right to obtain other payments for the duration of the study program.

Data processing

Upon submitting their signed self-declaration form, students are informed of European law, Reg.(UE) 2016/679, and Italian legislative Decree n. 196 of 30 June 2003, and subsequent amendments and additions, as well as the provisions of the authority that guarantees protection of personal data.

Students' personal data, which must be provided for the purposes of determining eligibility and assigning scholarships, are processed exclusively for the purposes of managing this announcement and are stored at the University of Gastronomic Sciences – Academic and Registrar Office, with corresponding records kept in digital format. Students who fail to provide said data cannot be evaluated and will therefore be excluded from the process.

As per the above-mentioned Legislative Decree, candidates may exercise their right to correct, update, complete or erase inaccurate or incomplete data or data collected in violation of current privacy laws.
